How You Can Make a Difference for the Village

Villages succeed because the members have a stake in that success. Villages are the best example of being “of the people, by the people, for the people” because members create, guide, and sustain the organization.

As FBWEV moves forward we are turning to you, our members, to extend your investment in our operations. Specifically, volunteer opportunities abound and we invite you to join in the operations and functions of our beloved organization.

Committees:

Committees are key to keeping the Village moving forward. There are several standing committees including Finance, Membership, and Program. While all of them could benefit from more member involvement, the Membership Committee, which helps with member recruitment and retention, is a priority this year. If you're a people person, this would be a great spot for you.

Program and finance also do great work and are looking for new members. Additionally, we are re-starting a Volunteer/Services Committee which has been dormant for many years.

For more information or to volunteer, contact Denise at dsnyder@fbwevillage.org.

Board of Director Positions:

Because of the pandemic and more, at this time, we are a very small but caring Board and later this year we will have more turn over as terms are ending. We are looking for individuals who want to help guide the organization as we continue to grow. Whether you're a people person or love numbers, if you have old-fashioned business sense, or like the idea of helping with outreach/marketing you're needed and can contribute to the board.

If you have want to play a role in helping to move FBWE Village forward please talk with Phyllis Kramer, chair of the Village's Governance Committee, at pfkramer38@gmail.com.

10th Anniversary Gala Planning/Marketing:

The Board needs help in planning this important celebration. Three years have passed since we have had a Gala so we are a bit rusty and need your ideas to make this Gala a resounding success. Experience in event planning is not required – just a desire to increase awareness of the Village's good work and some time to help with specific tasks. Please contact Myrna Fawcett at myrnafawcett@gmail.com.

TO TEACH OR NOT TO TEACH “BLACK STUDIES” AS AN ELECTIVE CLASS IN HIGH SCHOOLS: A CURRENT EVENTS DISCUSSION

Friday, March 17th, at 2:00 PM

West End Library Large Conference Room, 2301 L St NW

Governor Ron DeSantis has rejected the College Board's Advanced Placement course in African American Studies for all of Florida's public high schools. At least 18 states have laws or policies that restrict the teaching of race. Is this a threat to freedom of speech? Is it censorship? Is racism systemic in America or is it a matter of individual prejudice?

Florida is one of 12 states that mandate Black History in public schools. Is Black History American History? Would we need a separate course in Black History if we included it in American History classes? Should paying attention to Black history be limited to one 28-day month? What are the political aspects of this controversy? Is this debate evidence of our atrophying democratic culture?

Sue Headlee and Bill Kincaid will be the moderators.

Covid Communal Quilt

Tuesday March 21, 2023 from noon to 1:15pm

At the Village Office, 2430 K St NW

Since 3 years ago, the Covid pandemic has created a profound impact on the world, communities, groups, and individuals. Most of us have experienced a great deal of change. We may have also learned new ways of coping and problem solving.

Perhaps you now have new skills, hobbies, or even beautiful new memories and stories to cherish and share. Art making can be both a coping strategy, and a way to celebrate and tell your pandemic story, even as the pandemic continues.

We would like to provide you time, space, art materials, and togetherness to reflect and make art around your pandemic experience, as we create a Villages community quilt. The finished art product will be displayed after the program concludes. No artistic experience is required. If you feel uncomfortable joining in person, or are not able to be physically present, we can provide you with art materials for at-home artmaking, after you register. The program will take place at our office in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, located at 2430 K Street NW, DC.

Our first and introductory session will be: Tuesday March 21, 2023 from noon to 1:15pm. Two sessions will follow, to focus on artmaking and conjoining quilt pieces for a finished communal quilt.

If you are interested in joining, please click here to register.

Discussion and tour of the “Entertainment Nation” Exhibition

Wednesday, March 22, 2:30 pm

Where: National Museum of American History (on the Mall at Constitution Avenue, NW Between 12th and 14th Streets)

Members of the Foggy Bottom/West End Village are invited for a private tour of the new exhibit, “Entertainment Nation”, at the National Museum of American History.

Seena Bryan, an experienced docent at the American History Museum, will be leading the tour.

Through the National Museum of American History’s extraordinary collection of theater, music, sports, movie and television objects, the exhibition Entertainment Nation features a powerful, ever-changing selection of objects and interactive experiences. Through the objects and their stories, the exhibition explores how, for over 150 years, entertainment has provided a forum for important national conversations about who we are, and who we want to be.

No other museum can tell the story of the country’s common entertainment experiences like the National Museum of American History. The museum's collection of 1.8 million objects documents the careers of such influential figures as Selena, Roberto Clemente, Kristi Yamaguchi, Mia Hamm, Prince, Cyndi Lauper, Judy Garland, Frank Sinatra, Bette Davis, and Muhammad Ali. Its’ Broadway, television, and film collections document productions such as Hamilton, Rent, The Handmaid’s Tale,

M*A*S*H, Sesame Street, Star Wars, and many more.

ONE LIFE: MAYA LIN NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY TOUR

Thursday, March 30th, at 11:30 am
At the National Portrait Gallery

"I feel I exist on the boundaries, somewhere between science and art, art and architecture, public and private, East and West. I am always trying to find a balance between these opposing forces, the place where opposites meet." —Maya Ying Lin

Maya Lin's work has been well known in our neighborhood for over 40 years. In 1981, after her design for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was selected from 1,421 entries, Lin was unwittingly thrust into the limelight. Four decades later, she remains one of the most influential artists and architects of our time. Best known for her large-scale, site-specific installations, architectural works, and memorials, Lin also creates intimate studio artworks. The common thread, she notes, is "the love and respect I have for the natural world."

You might be surprised what you'll learn and you'll have a chance to share your thoughts with her as part of her effort to raise awareness and find solutions to the loss of our natural world through 'What is Missing.' Lorna Grenadier, Villager and NPG docent, will be our guide.

Accessibility: There are two ramps on either side of the 8th and G St. entrances. Wheelchairs and camp stools are available.

Transportation: NPG can be reached via Metro (either to Metro Center and walk from 11th St NW east 2 blocks or transfer to Red Line which is directly below the museum. The Circulator bus (Union Station) has a stop at 9th St. and New York Ave NW; then walk south 3 blocks to G St.

Please meet in the 8th and G St. lobby using the entry doors on the right side. Note: NPG has installed security scanners inside. Doors will open at 11:30 am.

Foggy Bottom Family Activity Sheet

Denise Vogt and Frank Leone have created a family activity sheet for families with young children, your relatives and grand kids to let them have fun exploring the history of the area, find the playground, the alleys and more. Now you don't have to rush your guests to the Smithsonian -- you can share our local attractions right here in Foggy Bottom.

The activity sheet is one page (front and back) designed for adults to accompany their kids ages 5-15. Those who complete the sheet can receive a Junior Historian Certificate.

We hope you agree the activity sheet a nice complement to their History and Art/Artists on-line self-guided walking tours.

The Foggy Bottom Association website has a link to the family fun activity sheet so you can print in advance. You can find the activity sheet here.

THE ROSE April 2023 Spoken Word Concert at the Arts Club

THE ROSE is calling for submissions of poetry to be included in their upcoming Spoken Word Concert at the Arts Club of Washington on April 19, 2023.

We seek poems that celebrate the musicality of language and dive deep into the human experience. We lean towards poetry that is free form, unpublished, and new. Create something special. Just for us. We thrive on that energy. Perhaps your jam is clever verse. Channel your inner Dorothy Parker or Ogden Nash and send it along. We look forward to reading your work!

DEADLINE: SUNDAY MARCH 26, 2023. Click here to make a submission.

Fun Podcasts to Look Out For

A great podcast is "70 Over 70:" an insightful show hosted by Max Linsky featuring interviews with prominent people over the age of 70. But now the great Julia Louis-Dreyfus of “Seinfeld” and “Veep” fame is coming along to upstage Max. Her new podcast is called “Wiser Than Me” and is about spreading the wisdom of women over 70 (Dreyfus herself is only 62 but Jerry Seinfeld is about to turn 69, ponder that). Announced guests include Jane Fonda, Isabel Allende, Ruth Reichl, and Fran Lebowitz. Here’s how Dreyfus explains the project:

“In our culture, older women are rarely seen or heard. What a shame. We are missing out on the wisdom and experiences of a huge portion of the population. I want to hear from these older women. I want to talk to them. I want to know how they navigate aging and their tips for a life well lived. How they did it, how they do it and everything in between.”

The podcast is expected to debut this spring. We think it's going to be a big success, unless Julia Louis-Dreyfus turns out to be some kind of low talker.

Free GWU Tax Clinic

GW University is offering free tax preparations for individuals with adjusted gross income of $75,000 or less. The business and law school students who are volunteering in this capacity have been fully trained and are certified to work in a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site.

The services will be offered at 2201 G St., NW (GW's School of Business, Duques Hall). Services are on a first come, first serve basis every Saturday and Sunday from 9:30 - 5:30, running from February 11th through April 16th.

Tax returns will be filed electronically by the volunteers. Please note that persons with complicated tax documents (e.g. reporting rental income, self-employment income, investment income) cannot be served.

And, perhaps most importantly, remember that this is a free service!

The Aftermath: The End of the Baby Boom's Effect on Politics and the Economy

Tuesday, March 14th, at 11:00 AM

Washington Post columnist Philip Bump's book, The Aftermath: The Last Days of the Baby Boon and the Future of Power in America, is a sweeping assessment of how the baby boom created modern America, and where power, wealth, and politics will shift as the boom ends. How much longer will Boomers control wealth? Will millennials get shortchanged for jobs and capital as Gen Z rises? What kind of pressure will Boomers exert on the health care system? How do generations and parties overlap? When will regional identity trump age or ethnic or racial identity? Who will the future GOP voter be, and how does that affect Democratic strategies? What does the Census get right — and wrong?

Writing with a light hand and deft humor, Bump helps us navigate the flood of data in which our sense of the country now drowns. He fits numbers into a narrative about who we are (including what "we" really means), how we vote, where we live, what we buy—and what predictions we can make with any confidence. We know what will happen eventually to the baby boomers. What we don't know is how the boomer legacies might reshape the country one final time. Mr. Bump will share with us some answers that will help us manage the historic disruption of the American state we are now experiencing.
